3. And for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the mass meeting.

Qualifications for Participation

All legal and qualified voters of Clarke County, under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Republican Party of Virginia in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions or primaries encompassing their respective election districts. In addition to the foregoing, to be in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, a person otherwise qualified hereunder shall not have participated in Virginia in the nomination process of a party other than the Republican Party in the last five years. A single exception to the above shall be approved for a voter that renounces affiliation with any other party in writing, and who expresses in writing that he/she is in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and intends, at the time of the writing, to support the nominees of the Republican Party in the future. A voter that utilizes the foregoing exception, and thereafter participates in the nomination process of a Party other than the Republican Party, shall not have the benefit of the exception as identified in this paragraph thereafter.

If no more than one candidate files for each Clarke County Republican Committee office, no more than the maximum number of members of the Clarke County Republican Committee allowed to file, and the Credentials Committee approves said candidates, then all candidates will be deemed elected and the Mass Meeting will be cancelled.

Filing Requirements

Candidates for election to the position of Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer of the Clarke County Committee, Clarke County Committee membership, shall file a written statement of intent with Andrew Nicholson, stating their intent to seek election for each specific office using the form provided by the Committee for this purpose. No nominations for the above offices or membership will be accepted from the floor. All forms must be received no later than 12:00 pm (noon) on Saturday March 10th, 2018 (post marks do not govern), either in person or by mail at the following address:
